

Heartfelt Stories & Groovy Roots Rock – Made in Europe

After three successful studio albums and a live DVD, INGVAY looks back on highly productive years – praised by the press and receiving airplay across nearly all genre-relevant formats, including Deutschlandfunk Kultur, NDR Info, RBB, and SWR1, as well as radio play in the USA, UK, Benelux, France, and Italy.

INGVAY represents honest blues, earthy Americana, and funky roots rock. Together with his tight-knit band – all skilled musicians and close friends – he takes audiences on a journey to a place where life feels easy and the free spirit feels at home.

As a sound engineer, INGVAY has been touring across Europe for over 20 years. In the studio and on tour, he has worked with renowned artists such as Roger Cicero, Heinz Rudolf Kunze, Max Mutzke, Thomas D, Wolfgang Niedecken, the Söhne Mannheims, Hannelore Elsner, and Ulrich Tukur, as well as international acts like Chilly Gonzales, Lizz Wright, and Johnny Logan.

His music: Songs about life “on the road” – stories of departure, longing, and returning home. Laid-back, powerful, and undeniably groovy.

Live: INGVAY & Band deliver energetic shows that have been winning over a steadily growing fanbase for years – a must-hear for fans of blues, rock, country, and Americana.
